Dear Mr. Dmochowski,

enclosed please find 3 copies of my book »Die Stille nach dem Ton«, covered with the Beksinski-Picture, and an Eurocheque about 500 French Francs (it's in the name of my brother Markus Hirsch, cause I have no Cheques). Hirsch is my real Name, »Marrak« is a nom de plume ...

Unfortunately there was a little mistake with the printing: the cover is much to dark. As I saw it first time, I was shocked. I think, the printers had print the black film mistakenly twice.

Well, I hope, you like it nevertheless.

Thank you very much at last for the great and fascinating books of Beksinsky. Im glad to have them both now, and I was very surprised to see that the smaller Book was the 2nd part of the book I've searched.

By the way: Can you possibly manage it to get somewhere one of the out-of-print beksinski-hardcover-catologes, edited by Ramsay in 1991?

Yours sincerely,

Michael Marrak
